A FARCE, BY PHILIP KING, ESQ.

Producer Darryl Evans

November 25th, 26th, 27th

LEONIE ANSTESS has been a member of the Arts Council Players since their inception and took part in both the 1975 production of "The Pirates of Penzance" and this year's production of "The Gondoliers." She was also co-producer of the High School's production of "Oliver" this year.

ROBYN JOHNSON has been one of Queanbeyan's theatrical stalwarts for many years. She is a member of the Canberra Repertory Theatre Group and in this production she makes a welcome return to Queanbeyan stages after a break of some 10 years.

ROGER COOMBS will be remembered for his appearances in "Pirates" and "Gondoliers" and is making in this production, his first foray into straight drama.

JACKIE McLOUGHLIN, who has also been with the Players since their inception, possesses a load of talent. We can look forward to many more appearances by her.

JOHN McGLYNN is a veteran of the stage and his performance in this rollicking farce should delight all who love comedy. He has taken part in both of the Arts Council's musicals and his performance in "The Boyfriend" will long be remembered by those who saw him.

ROSS HOSKING is a master of the stage and apart from his consummate musical expertise has delighted audiences throughout the state for many years.

DOUG ANSTESS, as the Intruder, gives an accomplished portrayal of an escaped German prisoner. He has also taken part in chorus of the Arts Council's musicals.

TIM BOOTH is making a welcome return to the theatre after being unable to participate in "The Gondoliers."

PETER SIDNEY has been instrumental in establishing the Players as a viable group, for which his work is herein acknowledged. This performance here is one of panache and vitality.
