

QUEANBEYAN PLAYERS INC
ROLE STATEMENT – CHOREOGRAPHER

The Choreographer is endorsed by the Committee in consultation with the Director. The Choreographer shall be responsible for the standard of the dance and movement for the production and for:

- Liaising with the Director on dance and movement requirements;
- Attending production meetings;
- Attending auditions as a member of the audition panel;
- Before the rehearsal period begins, determining rehearsal requirements in conjunction with the Director and the Musical Director;
- Conferring with the Director, Set Designer and Costume Designer to ensure that there are no misunderstandings in relation to set design, costume design and properties requirements in the staging of dance routines;
- Devising dance routines and choreographer movement for principals, chorus and dancers involved in the production;
- Conducting the dance rehearsals;
- Working with the Director on other rehearsals;
- Appointing a Dance Captain (if required) with endorsement of the Director;
- Collaborating with the Director in the preparation of their post-production report to the Committee including offering ideas for improvement;
- In the event of a dispute with the Artistic Team which cannot be resolved, the issue is to be raised by the Production Manager with the Committee. The Committee will then attempt a mediation session with the artistic team to resolve. If the Committee deems the Director's vision not unreasonable, then the Director's decision will stand.
- While the Committee endorses that the Director has the final say in regards to the Artistic Vision of a production, if the 'choice' is deemed unreasonable – ie: is deemed an unsafe decision and/or goes against Queanbeyan Players Inc.'s Policy and Procedures and/or Code of Conduct, the Committee reserves the right to veto the Director.

I, _____, agree to abide by and meet the requirements of this role statement in my capacity of Choreographer of _____

I agree that, in the event of artistic differences between the Director and myself, and the issue is unable to be resolved via Committee mediation, the Director's decision is final.
